WARNS WOOLARD TO RESPECT COURTS

H. C. Woolard, mechanic, whom Deputy Sheriff W. M. Palmer claims talked badly about the courts when he sought to summon him for jury service, was hauled before Judge Richards Thursday to show cause why he should not be sent to jail for contempt.

Woolard denied that he made any remarks and further stated that the attorney-general had excused him.

Judge Richards, after warning Woolard in future to respect the court and court orders, permitted him to go his way.

SOME DEFECT FOUND IN AMERICAN NOVELS

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The defect of the comprehensibility is the main flaw found in American novels by "M. A. B." (Mainly About Books), a monthly periodical, in pointing out reasons for "the comparatively small importation" into England of the American literary efforts.

After quoting extensively from a tobacco advertisement "called from the pages of a noted American monthly magazine," in which references are made to "jamming a jowly funny pipe check full and blazing away," which, it is promised, will "put the quiz into your thinking as to how much pipe or cigarette-rolling fun you've gone dry on," the English magazine says:

HEMPEL CONCERT OPENS PROMPTLY AT 8:15 P. M.

In order that there be no interruption by late comers during the concert at the Goodwyn institute Thursday evening by Frieda Hempel, the opening attraction of the Beethoven club course for the season of 1918-20, the doors will be closed at 8:15 o'clock and kept so until the first number of the program is completed. Nobody will be seated while the famous soprano is singing this number.

Indications during the day were that the capacity of the auditorium would be taxed.

QUEER VIEWS EXPRESSED IN REGARD TO PRUSSIA

PARIS, Dec. 11.—"If you talk to one Rhineland German he abuses Prussia; if there are two of them they make excuses for it; if there are three, they defend it." This is a contributor's comment printed by the Echo de Paris.
